Kenton, OH, July 25, 2020 - Tracy Altvater announces the publication of Sticky Situations, a collection of three short stories about ghosts, hitchhikers, cops and robbers. The collection will release on August 14, 2020 for $0.99 on Smashwords.com.

The collection begins with "The Beat". Tara is a cop in a busy town that never sleeps. One night while trying to enjoy time at home, she is rushed off to a liquor store robbery where the robber turns out to be her brother. Through a roller coaster of emotions and duty, Tara has to do her duty and uphold the law.

"The Room" starts off like any other patron visiting a hotel room, but it doesn't end that way. Karen is taken for a ride on her one-night stay to hell. She saw writing on the mirror and heard voices telling her she was doomed. Karen just tries to make it through the night.

"The Hitchhiker" is a story about Sam, a lonely man down on his luck walking the streets hoping to catch a break. Then he is picked up by Nathan and together they take a ride that possibly gives Sam a new friend and a new sense of hope in his life.

Smashwords.com is the world's largest publisher of indie e-books. They allow authors to publish and distribute their e-books to major distributors such as Amazon and Barnes and Noble. Smashwords publishes books of all genres and styles. There are many ways to read books at Smashwords.com.

Tracy Altvater is a novelist who writes contemporary fiction stories pertaining to real life events with personal experience. She is currently earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Creative Writing at Full Sail University. She is also a member of the Honor Society. One of her most exciting jobs and experiences is when she worked for three years at Wilson's Sporting Goods where she laced footballs for the NFL and got to meet Peyton Manning.
